III. Project Details

Project Description

Health inequities in the Philippines continue to exist despite economic and social improvement. As such many poor families have yet to access quality and critical health services. To address the problems on health, the Philippines committed to achieve the Millennium Development Goal (MDG) targets on health before 2015.

Issues and problems of the country on health and access to quality health services are acknowledged by the DOH. Given this issues, the need to constitute a leadership and governance program involving local chief executives from priority municipalities and cities was also recognized to empower the local government units (LGU) in improving the delivery of health services, including health service delivery capacity and facilities, thus, leading to improved health outcomes.

A partnership between the DOH and the ZFF was established on May 16, 2013 by virtue of a Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) signed by both parties. Through this signed MOA, the joint implementation of the Health Leadership and Governance Program (HLGP) was launched.

The HLGP is a three-year joint program designed to develop the leadership and governance capabilities of the local chief executives and other local health leaders under the Aquino government's Kalusugan Pangkalahatan (Universal Health Care) that will cover 15 regions, 54 provinces, 549 municipalities and 60 cities nationwide. As a commitment in achieving the MDG 2015, the national government, through the National Anti-Poverty Commission (NAPC), and development partners like the USAID and the UNICEF committed to empower 27 cities nationwide by capacitating the LGUs, City Health Offices and DOH Representatives on leadership and governance. The program is expected to be implemented until the Year 2016.

The HLGP has three program components—(a) Leadership and Governance Capacity Building, (b) Local Health System Development, and (c) Community Participation and Health-Seeking Behavior. Under the first component, which is the Leadership and Governance Capacity Building component that comprises various leadership and governance capacity building interventions for local chief executives and other city leaders, and professionals from DOH regional offices, is the City Leadership and Governance Program (CLGP).

The CLGP is a one-and-a-half year program composed of three (3) modules with intervening practicum sessions, designed to empower local chief executives, city health officers and other local leaders to become Bridging Leaders. The program aims to address the social determinants of health and transform their local health systems to make its programs and service work for the community by combining the Bridging Leadership Framework with the Short Course on Urban Health Equity (SCUHE), which was designed and developed by the DOH in partnership with the World Health Organization (WHO) and implemented by DAP. Thus, DAP has been tapped to serve as an academic partner in the implementation of the CLGP.
